Boston College Joins Statement Against Trump Administration Only After Other Schools Say "Do It And You're Cool"

ST. MARY'S HALL— Fr. William P. Leahy, S.J. recently joined 440 other universities as a signatory in a statement refuting President Donald Trump's interference with universities and higher education in America. What a huge step for this spineless, cowardly leader!

The Classic obtained secret insight into the conversation between the administration that caused this step to the plate.

What was thought to be a heroic act that defended democracy was revealed to be a direct result of peer pressure, a phenomenon that has plagued college campuses for decades. Rather than pressuring a nerdy teen who refuses to drink a Busch Apple, this pressure came from the "goth baddies" of neighboring Boston schools.

Boston College President Fr. Leahy expressed his desire to speak out against the current administration, a groundbreaking first for Boston College.

"It's just like, we are BC, you know?" he said. "We tailgate. We party. We may not have frats, but we have misogynistic bros who are in love with their moms. We drink. We pray. We are objectively cool, and we can't miss out on this opportunity to prove that."

Harvard University spearheaded the brigade, sending a group text to the Boston schools. Here is a quote from the conversation.

"Hello lovely ladies of Boston. The handsome brothers and hot sisters of Harvard University administration would like to cordially invite you all to join our refute against the current administration who want to finagle our funding. This is a chance to prove yourself as a 'baller'. Everyone's doing it. Do it and you're cool. You WON'T want to miss this. DM for addy."

"Speaking out against Trump could have consequences," Leahy continued, "but when you feel pressure to be cool all the time, it's hard to back down from an opportunity like this. Plus, the chicks at Harvard are smart baddies, and I don't want to jeopardize the relationship with them. God forbid the freshmen get blacklisted from their frat parties."

At press time, Leahy was seen texting Harvard President Alan Garber about pregame plans for the "woke mixer" and scheming what male manipulator outfits the two will wear. They are actively growing mullets and mustaches and just purchased tote bags.

Fr. Butler Project 2026: 5 Polices To Define Presidency

CORONATION CEREMONY OF BC'S EMPEROR GOD KING — As Fr. William P. Leahy, S.J. sleeps through meetings and scrolls on Hinge to kill time, incoming President Fr. John "Jack[ing Off]" Butler, S.J. has already begun planning the change he plans to bring to campus. Fr. Butler was happy to give his friends and former lovers at the Classic exclusive access to his "Project 2026" in an official statement:

Wassup Slimes,
Lmk what u think about this plan, I came up with most of it while daydreaming in Church—after I finished ranking my favorite fracking sites.

1. Let Spanish Department Succumb to Facism
Micromanaging teachers isn't enough. If you tase students for 5 seconds per grammar mistake and disappear them in vans if they mix up preterite vs. imperfect tense, they'll get studying!

2. Offer a Platinum Tuition Option
If BC is supposedly classist, I want to see it more in action. To make that happen, we are finally offering an anti-Montserrat. Some perks of paying this new tier of tuition: Moldless dorms, respect from professors (results may vary by race), and getting to name one hockey player.

3. Admin Will Uplift Women
BC will construct more elevators in Kostka. The money for this project will be generated from defunding the Women's Center and cutting the salaries of female faculty members to raise funds to redesign the St. Ignatius statue to be sluttier.

4. BC Will Listen to Student Voices
I will personally respond to the top three questions on Fizz each week. No, I will not upvote for our maintenance staff. For "What is the best sex position? I'm tryna see something" my answer is missionary (I'm biased since my service trip). Yes, it is hard to make friends due to cliques, that's why I joined the ultimate clique: The Catholic Church.

5. Collegiate Cultural Exchange Project
BC and BU will be doing some cultural exchanges. We will send our Protestants, and we will get any student who wears a Canada Goose black buffer. They get Gasson and we get their Jenga Tower (if it falls over, the insurance money goes straight to the UGBC retreat). They get Jesus Christ and we get soulless capitalist greed.
